Claim Procedure

IMPORTANT NOTICE

In all cases it is the duty of the insured and their agents to take such measures as may be reasonable for the purpose of averting or mitigating a loss and to ensure that all rights against carriers or other parties are properly preserved and exercised. Failure to comply with these requirements may prejudice a claim under the insurance.

1. Survey

- 1.1. In case of loss or damage in The Netherlands or Belgium, the insured must apply to Aon.
- 1.2. In all other cases the insured must apply to the nearest Lloyd's Agent or in the absence of such an agent to a competent surveyor of first class reputation unless another surveyor has been expressly named on page 1.
- 1.3. Application for such a survey to be made as soon as possible after arrival of the goods unless the claim does not exceed EUR 1,250.00 (or equivalent in other currency) or another amount mentioned on page 1.
- 1.4. In case of difficulties with the surveyor communicate immediately with Aon.

2. General average

In case of general average contact Aon immediately.

3. Liability of carriers, bailees or other third parties

- 3.1. If the goods arrive damaged or in doubtful condition, the insured is to make appropriate remarks on receipts.
- 3.2. The insured is to claim immediately for missing packages from the carriers, or (as far as applicable) the port authorities, holding them liable in writing for the loss.
- 3.3. If damage is apparent at the time of delivery, the insured shall immediately hold the carrier liable in writing and shall request the carrier to be present at the survey of such damage.
- 3.4. If no loss or damage is apparent at the time of delivery, survey of possible loss or damage, as well as holding the carrier liable in writing, has to take place within the period as mentioned in the applicable conditions of carriage.

4. Claim settlement

To enable claims to be dealt with promptly, the insured or their agents are advised to send all available supporting documents without delay, including when applicable:

- 4.1. the original policy or the original insurance certificate;
- 4.2. the original survey report or other documents out of which the extent of the loss or damage appears;
- 4.3. the original bill of lading, way-bill and/or similar document or a copy of these documents;
- 4.4. the original or copy of commercial invoices together with shipping specification and/or weight notes;
- 4.5. the landing reports and/or weight notes issued upon discharge;
- 4.6. a copy of the letter of liability (claim notification) towards the carrier and the correspondence exchanged with the carriers and other parties regarding their liability for the loss or damage and
- 4.7. any further relevant documents such as certificate of health or certificate of quality.

SHIPPED, as far as ascertained by reasonable means of checking, in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise stated herein, the total number or quantity of Containers or other packages or units indicated in the box entitled "Carrier's Receipt" for carriage from the Port of Loading (or the Place of Receipt, if mentioned above) to the Port of Discharge (or the Place of Delivery, if mentioned above), such carriage being always subject to the terms, rights, defences, provisions, conditions, exceptions, limitations, and liberties hereof (INCLUDING ALL THOSE TERMS AND CONDITIONS ON THE REVERSE HEREOF NUMBERED 1-26 AND THOSE TERMS AND CONDITIONS CONTAINED IN THE CARRIER'S APPLICABLE TARIFF) and the Merchant's attention is drawn in particular to the Carrier's liabilities in respect of on deck stowage (see clause 18) and the carrying vessel (see clause 19). Where the bill of lading is non-negotiable the Carrier may give delivery of the Goods to the named consignee upon reasonable proof of identity and without requiring surrender of an original bill of lading. Where the bill of lading is negotiable, the Merchant is obliged to surrender one original, duly endorsed, in exchange for the Goods. The Carrier accepts a duty of reasonable care to check that any such document which the Merchant surrenders as a bill of lading is genuine and original. If the Carrier complies with this duty, it will be entitled to deliver the Goods against what it reasonably believes to be a genuine and original bill of lading, such delivery discharging the Carrier's delivery obligations. In accepting this bill of lading, any local customs or privileges to the contrary notwithstanding, the Merchant agrees to be bound by all Terms and Conditions stated herein whether written, printed, stamped or incorporated on the face or reverse side hereof, as fully as if they were all signed by the Merchant.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the number of original Bills of Lading stated on this side have been signed and wherever one original Bill of Lading has been surrendered any others shall be void.
